Your V5C, also known as a car log book, is proof that you are the registered keeper of the stated vehicle. This only means that you're responsible for registering and taxing the vehicle, not that you necessarily legally own the car. The V5C form evidences that the car is registered with the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA). It contains all the essential information about your car, such as the name and address of the registered keeper, the date it was first
